

September 1, 2016

Dear NIH,

Please do not take human embryonic stem cells and introduce them into animal embryos. What purpose would this serve? Think about an intelligent human trapped in an animal body. And what about the poor animal? Please use your research to help eradicate some of the diseases that so far have no cure. Leave creation to God.

Sincerely,
Nancy Nobles

NANCY NOBLES

